AMENDED REPORT ADOPTED BY SYNOD

Growth of Romanism View-

Presbyterians.

Liquor Question Causes Debate at Yesterday's Session — Resolution
Amended and Passed.

Danville, Va., Oct. 25.—The one hundred and twenty-sixth annual session of the Synod of Virginia of the Presbyterian Church of United States came to a close yesterday evening. The various reports submitted show that the past year has been one of growth and development for Presbyterianism in Virginia.

The session of the evening was devoted largely to the interest of the Bible cause, and Rev. J. Calvin Stuart, D. D., of Richmond, chairman of the committee on Bible cause, presiding during that time.

Special interest centered in the report of the special committee to which was referred the paper on Catholicism, which Rev. J. C. Painter submitted to the synod on Thursday. Owing to the crowded condition of the docket and the many items of business to be considered which had precedence over this, the report was not submitted until the afternoon session, and was accepted. That portion of the original resolution which criticizes the general government for its "disposition to grant favors for this organization" was stricken out.

The following is the report of the special committee: "Your special committee on Catholicism submitted to the synod on Thursday a report in making its recommendations that it be amended as follows: 'The Synod of Virginia, in session at Danville, Virginia, do hereby overture the next general assembly to adopt the following resolution, as an expression of its estimate of the Romanish question: Resolved:

"1. That the General Assembly views with serious concern the growth and pernicious activity of that powerful politico-religious organization known as the Church of Rome, which is, and always has been, a menace or a blight to civil and religious liberty of every kind, wherever he has obtained a foothold; that it views with serious concern the dangerous apathy pervading all classes of Protestants in the country touching this menace.

"2. That, whereas the General Assembly of 1911 appointed an ad interim committee of three, which prepared another and elaborate report on this subject, and, whereas that report was not read before the General Assembly at Bristol, and utterly failed to receive that serious consideration of the assembly to which its importance entitles it, be it further resolved, that the next assembly re-adopt the body of that report (the first two sections) as fully sustaining the position taken in the above resolutions.

"3. The general assembly instruct the publication committee to print and send a copy of the report of the ad interim committee to all its ministers, elders and deacons of our Church.

"4. That, furthermore, the synod does hereby overture the general assembly to appoint a committee which shall make known to the whole people of similar committees by other Protestant bodies, and shall, in co-operation with said committee, seek to establish a bureau of information which shall make known to the whole people that dangers threaten our civil and religious liberties from the aggression of the Church of Rome."

The liquor question came to the front at this morning's session, and caused a lively discussion when Dr. E. T. Welford, of Newport News, introduced a resolution urging all members of the church to strive by "voice vote, and by all means that may be approved by their Christian consciences and judgment, for the enactment of such laws as shall speedily and effectively banish the liquor traffic from the land."

The consideration of this resolution awakened the warmest debate which has taken place during this session of the synod. Objection was immediately raised by Rev. A. M. Fraser, of Staunton to the words "and vote," and he moved that they be stricken from the amendments, so that the last part of the resolution would be changed so as to read, "In all ways which may be approved by their Christian consciences, and judgment to bring about this result in the most speedy manner possible."

Mr. Fraser's amendment was adopted.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A jury in the New York Supreme Court placed a value yesterday afternoon of $35,000 upon the affections of Miss Mary McIntyre, a Brooklyn school teacher. A verdict awarding her this sum was returned in her $150,000 suit against William Hughes, a manufacturer of paper boxes, for alleged breach of promise to marry. Miss McIntyre is about 40 years old, Mr. Hughes 65.

The abolition of the Pope's Swiss guards, who mutinied during the summer, now has been definitely decided upon. The Swiss will be replaced by an Italian regiment which has a long and honorable history, but which of late has been merely a show troop.

Thirty-four persons were drowned yesterday, when the steamer Vest-kusten was wrecked near Vasa, Finland. A passenger named Henrickson was the sole survivor. He was found lashed to the topmast nearly twelve hours after the vessel had foundered. Five other passengers lashed themselves to the rigging and held on for six hours, but finally were swept away by a huge wave.

READ BIBLE BY WATCH.

It Took 91 Hours and 15 Minutes to Read it Through.

Manhattan, Kan., Oct. 25.—In an old Bible once owned by the Rev. John T. Copley, a minister stationed here fifteen years ago, was found a schedule he made while reading the Bible, showing that it took just ninety-one hours and fifteen minutes to complete it.

The schedule shows the time for the reading of each of the books of the Old and New Testaments. The former he read in 71 hours and 4 minutes, while it required 20 hours and 11 minutes to read the New Testament through. The greatest time was required in reading the Psalms. This took 6 hours and 31 minutes. He read II. and III. John in two minutes each. The totals show Old Testament, 71 hours 4 minutes; New Testament, 20 hours 11 minutes.

BOMB IN THE MAIL.

Device is Exploded in Anacostia River.

Containing nitroglycerin and gun powder enough to wreck a building, an infernal machine, found by a clerk in the dead letter office of the Post-office Department in Washington yesterday, was blown up at the Arsenal grounds.

The machine was mailed in Cincinnati and addressed to Frank Goldberg, at Wellington, New Zealand. The device was taken by Captain Hollinberger to the Harbor Police Precinct Station and Lieut. Dean accompanied him down the Potomac river in the police boat Vigilant to the Arsenal.

A hole ten feet deep was dug near the banks of the Anacostia river, several hundred yards from the War College, and the machine placed in it. A charge of gun cotton was put beneath it. An electrical exploder was connected to it. A coil of wire, 100 feet, connected at the other end with a set of dry batteries was in turn fastened to the exploder. At a signal from Lieut. Col. Kuhn the batteries were set in operation and in a flash there was an explosion, sounding louder than a heavy single charge of blasting dynamite.

Had the clerk who discovered the machine opened the "door" of the little box there would have been several persons killed at the Postoffice Department yesterday.

INSANITY. EXPERTS

Accused Married Daniel H. Ainsworth

at Age of Seventeen—Canvassed

Books for a Living.

Court House, Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton faced the final ordeal of her trial for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph C. Eaton, today. Calm and refreshed, showing little of the strain of the past few days, the prisoner entered the crowded court room carrying a leather traveling bag, prepared to take the stand and tell her own story in an attempt to save herself from the electric chair.

The significance of much of the testimony of the prosecution, including rambling letters written by Mrs. Eaton and introduced by the government, appeared today when it was stated that insanity experts had been brought into the court room by District Attorney Barker and will watch the prisoner's every move. In the light of this efforts of the Commonwealth which did not seem germane to the case, now appear to have been calculated to prove the insanity, if not the guilt of the prisoner.

The court was silenced and spectators craned their necks for a better view when Mrs. Eaton took the stand. She leaned forward on the rail of the witness box and in calm, clear tones told the story of her life. Her first recollections were those of a small town in Michigan, where she attended school and at the age of seventeen married Daniel Henry Ainsworth.

Her two daughters were born in Michigan, and they later removed to St. Louis to allow little Dorothy to be treated for her lameness. She told of the excessive drinking of her husband.

In St. Louis she decided to earn some money, she said, and took up canvassing books for a time, and was successful. Later the family moved to Washington, D. C.

THOMPSON BROWN IS ILL.

Koerner's Opponent in Recent Election Partially Paralyzed.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 25.—John Thompson Brown, prominent farmer of Bedford county, and twice candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, was stricken with paralysis at his home near Bedford City, a few days ago and is now in a serious condition, according to information which has been received in Richmond.

The stroke affected Mr. Brown's entire face, rendering him speechless.

Mr. Brown was defeated in the recent State primary by Commissioner of Agriculture Koerner. The nervous strain, incident to the campaign, is given as the cause of the breakdown.

YOUNG WOMAN ATTACKED.

Negro Assailant Makes His Escape After Attacking Young Girl.

An unidentified negro attacked Miss Irene Burroughs, of 1629 Gales street northeast, Washington, last night shortly before 10 o'clock at Gales and Sixteenth streets. After she had struggled from the man's grasp and ran toward her home, half a block away, he followed her.

Miss Burroughs was going home from work, getting off a car on H street line at Fifteenth street. She walked up Fifteenth to Gales street and down Gales street. The negro followed her from the car, overtaking her at Sixteenth street. He grabbed her, but she jerked away from him and ran.

Rushing into her home, she told her sister, Miss Grace Burroughs, and other members of her family. The police were called and given a good description of the man. He is described as being dark brown skinned, thirty-five years old, five feet six inches tall, and weighing about 150 pounds. He wore a slouch hat, salt-and-pepper colored suit of clothes, and black shoes.

BISHOPRIC FOR NEGRO IN SOUTH

House of Bishops Supports Plan Rejected by the Deputies.

WILL COME UP AGAIN.

Resolution Regarding Woman Suffrage

Referred to a Commission Where it Will Die.

New York, Oct. 25.—A deadlock between the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, the governing bodies of the Protestant Episcopal Church was brought about at the general convention yesterday, when the bishops voted to establish a separate bishopric for negroes of the South, the bishop this district to have a seat in the upper house. The House of Deputies a few days ago rejected this plan, and asked the bishops to refer the matter to a joint commission, which would report at the next triennial convention.

The two houses having reached divergent conclusions in what is regarded as one of the most important problems that has come before the present convention, one of the two bodies is ordered to withdraw its vote and concur in the action of the other. The bishops have asked the deputies to do this. The lower house will consider the question probably today.

The House of Bishops voted that the Episcopal church shall sanction religious communities within dioceses, and requested the House of Deputies to concur.

Under this legislation a religious community seeking recognition would have to submit to the church for approval the rules and constitution, no change in which could be made without the consent of the bishop of the diocese containing the mother church of the community.

A resolution adopted by the House of Deputies called on the House of Bishop to unite with them in condemnation of the employment of children under sixteen, and to urge the extension of the vocational training.

Rev. William Cabell Brown, D. D., archdeacon of Brazil, was nominated by the House of Bishops as missionary bishop of Cuba.

A resolution which was generally interpreted as an effort to commit the Protestant Episcopal Church to the cause of woman suffrage, was summarily dealt with. After first being refused admission to the deliberations on a point of order, it was received and without debate referred to the Commission on social service, where it was freely predicted it will die.

The "suffrage" resolution was presented by the Rev. J. W. Ashton, of the diocese of Western New York.

WRECKED BY YEGGMEN.

Robbers Succeed in Escaping With Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

Chicago Junction, O., Oct. 25.—Robbers early yesterday blew open the safe of the postoffice of Atassa, O., seven miles west of here and escaped with loot estimated at $15,000.

The explosion of the safe, which rocked the town, and awakened the entire population, demolished the two-story building which sheltered the postoffice but did not prevent the robbers from getting away with their loot.

The sum they obtained represents not only the money and stamps of the office but large sums of money belonging to the Seneca County Fair Association, and other organizations of which Postmaster W. F. Uble was secretary.

Uble was only recently appointed postmaster and had not yet arranged to pass over funds of some of the offices with private concerns which he has formerly held.

There was no trace of the robbers when the town awoke. The first man to reach the scene was a night watchman from a bank two doors from the postoffice.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Next Meeting of Literary Society to be Held Next Saturday.

The next meeting of the Alexandria High School Literary Society will be held Saturday, November 1st. The regular meeting of Saturday, 18th, had been postponed until that time. The program for the next meeting is very interesting. The subject for debate will be "Resolved, that State-wide Prohibition is preferable to local option." This literary society is becoming one of the most interesting features of the high school curriculum. Pupils not belonging at first are beginning to apply for membership, and the society is growing rapidly.

The first six weeks ended last Friday and reports of the pupils standing have been given out through the week.

During the absence of several teachers, studies have been irregular during the latter part of the week. While a fourth year pupil substituted in the first grade, the regular teacher of the first grade held study periods in the high school. Captain Sweeney taught, and the principal, and Mr. Blanton held almost twice their usual number of classes.

Mr. Prettyman who sprained his ankle while refereeing the football game at Marshall between the High School and Randolph-Macon Academy Wednesday, is improving.

Work on the Maroon and White is progressing slowly, and the first issue is expected to appear about the first of November.

An agent of a New York class pin, badge, etc., firm, recently visited the school. The second year, who had been trying to get a class pin, ordered some from him. The pins have not been received.

The different classes are going over their specified course of study very swiftly. The sophomores, especially, are making rapid strides through physiology. This study is considered the most interesting of the course in the second year.

Drawing makes it doubly so, besides giving the pupils a correct idea of that branch of science. They will finish the study by Christmas. It will be supplanted in the second term by botany.

NOT GO TO COURT.

Will Settle Bryan Estate Tax Matter Outside.

Richmond, Oct. 25.—That the adjustment of the tax controversy between the Bryan estate and the Commonwealth is to be settled out of court, was the statement by counsel for both sides when the matter came up before Judge Scott in Henrico Circuit Court a day or two ago. Books and ledgers of the estate, which were ordered to be produced were not produced, and it is not likely that they will be. The case will come before Judge Scott next month.

It was learned at the Henrico Circuit Court House that State Auditor Moore and Examiner of Records W. H. Sands would take part in proposed conferences, and would assist in reaching an agreement as to how much should be refunded to the Bryan estate, or how much the estate owes the state and the county.

Women's Suggestion at Suffrage League Brings

MILITANT REBUKED

New Officers Elected—Organization

Will Meet Next Year in the City of Roanoke.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 25.—The first suggestion of militancy in the annual convention of the Virginia Equal Suffrage League yesterday came at the morning session, when Miss Ann Salisbury, of Burkeville, one of the younger delegates, suggested that the suffragists lay aside their dignity and get on the band wagon until women secure the right to vote in Virginia.

The suggestion caused a sensation and a storm of disapproval and a number of strong talks were made against it, even the suggestion of such a condition in Virginia. Mrs. B. B. Valentine left the chair and expressed surprise that any member of the league should want to lay aside her dignity, declaring the reason so much had been accomplished in the state as the dignified manner in which the women have gone about it. She counseled the members to work, but that no militant methods be used.

The discordant note was generally deprecated by the members of the convention.

In the afternoon the convention tendered a reception to the delegates to the Roanoke convention.

Roanoke was the scene of a convention over Alexander, the contest elected for the coming year are: Mrs. B. B. Valentine, Richmond, president.

ALEXANDRIA IN FOREGROUND.

Growing reports of the success of the oyster week campaign over the entire country have not overshadowed the remarkable record attained by one of Alexandria's foremost business houses. The fine quality of the oysters provided having resulted in the Rammel Cafe eclipsing any former oyster business. Their efforts were rewarded by the co-operation of the Alexandria public who aided in making oyster week such a great success. Alexandria always does herself proud when called upon and the report of the Rammel Cafe to the Oyster Dealers and Growers Association will serve to place Alexandria in the front rank for serving the best oysters.

The Norfolk is the Suit For Boys From 8 to 18 Years

No style in the realm of Boy's Clothing is more stylish, practicable and continually wearable than the Norfolk. In it our clothes makers have found room for the expression of quite a variety of individual ideas of style, and while all of them are known as Norfolks, the differences which they possess show the many tastes which we cater to.

Each garment is of assured good taste, reliable fabrics, splendid workmanship and the assortment of colorings and patterns is remarkably large. The boy who wishes to be well dressed should not purchase his suit before coming here and looking at our clothing display.

$5.00, $6.00, $7.50 to $15.00

IN OVERCOATS the extensive variety is just as much a feature as it is in the suits—chinchillas lead, and we can furnish them in the long, loose weaves or the closely shorn, fine weaves. Blue seems to be the favorite color, but there are others for those preferring them. Meltons, Kerseys, chevrot and all choice woolen fabrics, $5.00 to $16.00 is the price range.

BRISTOL ISSUE TO BE SETTLED.

Two Postoffices and Two Postmasters to be Provided.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Bristol, which is a modest city, lying half in Virginia and half in Tennessee, the main street of the town being the state boundary line, looms large on the postoffice map, for it is the only city in the country to have two postmasters. The postoffice at Bristol has been for years a bone of contention. Many years ago the enterprising representative from the congressional district which includes the Tennessee half of the town secured an appropriation for a postoffice, and, of course, had it built in the Tennessee end of Bristol. Of course, for many years, the Bristol postmaster was a Tennessee man.

Of recent years, however, the Virginia end of the town has asserted itself, and has insisted that it hurt Virginia pride to have a Tennessee postmaster. Representative Slemph, who represents the Virginia district which contains the Virginia part of the town, succeeded two years ago in persuading Postmaster General Hitchcock and President Taft that the Virginians should also have a postmaster. Mr. Taft yielded, and appointed a Virginia postmaster, so that the town had two postmasters. Difficulties arose, however, and the Virginia postmaster was never confirmed, and his name was finally withdrawn by Mr. Taft.

As soon as Mr. Burleson became Postmaster General the Virginians renewed their demand for recognition. For a long time Mr. Burleson refused to understand why one postmaster was not enough for the town, or why Virginia pride would be humbled if a Tennessee man handed out the mail. He has, however, finally listened to the protestations of Virginia pride, and today he announced that there will be two postoffices, one on each side of the boundary line, so that the Virginians can get their mail from the Virginia postmaster, and the Tennesseans from the Tennessee man.

GROUP HAS BEEN ACCEPTED.

Virginia's Memorial to Her Confederate Dead.

Wm. Hodges Mann, governor of the State, Col. Thomas Smith, Col. Wm. Gordon, McCabe, Major E. Edmundson and Capt. Stephen P. Reid, comprising the Virginia Memorial Commission, have just accepted the bronze group which will form part of the Virginia Monument at the National Gettysburg Park. They invited forty eminent sculptors of the country to submit suggestions for this important work, and after considerable deliberation selected the design which was submitted by Mr. F. William Sievers, the famous Plastik whose early education and training were obtained in Richmond under the late W. L. Shepard, at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Rome and for a short while at Juliers in Paris.

The monument will be one of the most unique ever conceived and will differ in many respects from the others of the group which will form part of the great southern memorial. It will consist of a granite shaft on the top of which will be placed the figure of Gen. Robert E. Lee mounted on his favorite horse "Traveler." Below and in front of General Lee the group will surmount a granite pedestal sixteen feet high.

The designer has depicted in the 7 characters of the group two youths, the one on the extreme left a bugler of the artillery, and the other mounted on a horse, in the center a cavalry corps bearer, carrying aloft the State flag of Virginia with its ever memorable legend, "Sic Semper Tyrannis." The second figure presents a farmer fighting side by side with one whose expression and bearing mark him as a prosperous banker or business man. The long hair, aquiline features and negligent appearance of the artillery man next is an artist, while by his side a stalwart mechanic, his musket firmly gripped ready to repel an attack. The man erect on the extreme left, biting off the end of a cartridge, suggests a type which is found among the professions, perhaps a doctor.

The shattered cannon, broken wheel, discarded knapsack, hat, swab and exploded shell which are scattered about the ground would indicate that the place had been the scene of some desperate engagement, while the attitude of each of the characters show defensive rather than offensive action.

The group is sixteen feet long, its height eighteen feet and it is five feet deep.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation Cured.

"I was sick for three years with stomach trouble and constipation, doctored continually with different physicians with only temporary relief," says Mrs. Hester Waite, of Antwerp, Ohio. "A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Tablets, which I did, and continued to use them for one year, and they completely cured me not only of the stomach trouble but also of the constipation." FLEET SAILS TODAY.

Will Keep Within 200 Miles of Virginia Coast Until Next Week.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25.—In naval circles here it is reported that instead of a European cruise, the entire Atlantic fleet, now in Hampton Roads may soon be en route to Mexican waters.

It is understood here that the final orders to the command is for the fleet to depart today at the scheduled hour, but that they are not to proceed to the Mediterranean for a day or two. They are under instructions not to get beyond easy call of the wireless station at the government yard here.

The battleships scheduled to leave here today: Wyoming, Utah, Florida, Arkansas, and Ohio. They are in command of Rear Admiral Badger. The battleships Virginia, New Jersey, Rhode Island, and Nebraska will remain in the Roads under orders to sail for Mexican waters on October 29. It is known that they are ready to begin their journey southward at a moment's notice.

The present order to proceed to sea may be merely to conceal the real purpose of the government until the last moment. All the ships have been provisioned and ammunition stored for any emergency.

It is safe to say that the fleet will be within 150 or 200 miles of the Virginia Capes for the next three or four days or until the outcome of the Sunday election in Mexico is definitely known, and the Washington officials feel satisfied that their presence in Mexican ports will not be necessary.

COMMITTED TO SANITARIUM.

Alleged Defaulter Taken to Virginia by Brother.

Baltimore, Oct. 25.—Thomas Vernon Warthen, formerly supervising accountant at the National Exchange Bank, who confessed to forging a check for $5,300 against the account of Mount St. Joseph's Seminary, Emmitsburg, has been committed to a private sanitarium at Winchester, Va.

Warthen was arrested on September 29 by P. X. O'Leary, Detective Agency, and Detectives Bradley and Berney. Warthen declared after his arrest that no one was responsible for his pecuniary loss himself. He was committed to jail, where he was held until October 19, when he was released on $10,000 bail.

Warthen, after a conference with relatives, declared that he would pay back every cent of the $5,300 to the bank. The charge is that Warthen drew a check and forged the name of Sister Orndorf, treasurer of the seminary.

Last Monday when Warthen was released from jail he was taken to Virginia by his brother. When he left Baltimore he was almost a physical wreck. It is understood that Warthen's presence in Baltimore will be demanded when the case is set for trial.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years. And of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.

PLACE BAN ON PRACTICAL JOKERS.

An item in yesterday's Gazette called attention to the mayor's order to the police to put a stop to the procedure of mischievous youngsters on Halloween night. Youthful pranks, however, are by no means confined to Halloween, but in some neighborhoods they are chronic and complaints are often made of annoyance and in some cases damage to property.

A quiet and law-abiding knight of St. Crispin in talking with a representative of the Gazette recently complained bitterly of the manner in which he is treated almost nightly by practical jokers, who take pleasure in knocking over his signs and damaging the same. Among other things he said victims of practical jokers, unable to obtain the protection the law should provide, are likely to become desperate and, taking the law into their own hands, are guilty of overt acts which bring them into trouble and cause distress elsewhere. He said he was well acquainted with Tony Milano, the Italian shoemaker, who butchered a boy named Smith, recently in Washington. He also knew the shoemaker's victim and his family. He never saw the Italian manifest any desire to hurt any one, and he suggests that the Washington shoemaker might have been tantalized beyond his powers of endurance, although he made no excuse for his terrible act of revenge.

There are unfortunate periods in the history of all when white heat obscures the reason, and acts that are committed cause regret as long as life lasts.

About sixty years ago a young and popular Alexandrian had his brains beaten out by an enraged circusman at the southeast corner of Queen and Columbus streets. The unfortunate youngster was one of a party who had been engaged in annoying the circusmen while they were lowering their tents after a performance. It was a sad affair, but should be a warning to all practical jokers.

HOSPITAL BAZAR LAST NIGHT

First Baptist Church in Charge of Entertainment.

The attendance at Armory Hall last night showed no diminution notwithstanding the rainy weather, and as on former occasions, there was joy in the air. The Lone Star Band discouraged enlivening music during the evening, and Mr. J. Fred Birrell delivered an appropriate speech which was greatly enjoyed.

There were the usual greetings and interchanges of pleasantries as the large crowds surged to and fro. The booths were well patronized, while bouquets were disposed of like hot cakes. While the war of the roses was not in evidence, most of the assemblage had flowers on their lapels. At ten o'clock there was a sound of revelry as music by Schroder's Orchestra sounded notes indicating that dancing was in order, and from that time until eleven o'clock couples were whirling through acts of Ter-siphore.

In spite of the steady downpour yesterday, the children's afternoon at the Hospital Bazar was well attended, and crowds of little totos as well as grown-ups filled the hall to witness the Mother Goose Tableau, which was the feature of the afternoon. The enthusiastic audience repeatedly encircled the pretty pictures presented, and needless to say, more than one Mother Goose volume was opened at bedtime last evening by the wee folks who eagerly gazed at "Jack Spratt and his wife," "Old Mother Goose" herself, "Mistress Mary," with her wonderful rows of little maids, "Old King Cole," his page bearing his pipe and bowl, his three sprightly fiddlers followed by a handsome New King Cole, with the maid of his choice, "Jack Horner," was there, too, with his plum in air. Dear Little "Miss Muffet," with the rude spider, "Dainty Bo-Peep," "Mr. Pringle," whose wife in the wheelbarrow, proved too heavy a burden. The much-loved "Jack and Jill," "Little Red Riding Hood with her basket of dainties for the indisposed grandmother, and "Tom the Piper's Son, still up to his vogueish pranks. The breathless suspense that the bold "Prince Charming" awakes the fair, "Sleeping Beauty" was of short duration. "My Master," worried over the loss of his fiddlestick, and my dame flurried over the loss of her shoe, was gaily pictured. "Humpty Dumpty" attempted to balance himself and the little lad astride a cock-horse had galloped so fast that his paper cockade was leagues behind. Jack and the Beanstalk of marvelous height, was not missing, and the programme was concluded by one of Mother Goose's favorite clowns, extending her thanks for so much appreciation and wishing a good afternoon to all.

Miss Rebecca Heishley accompanied the tableaux by music which she had specially arranged for each picture.

The bazar will be continued to-night, and a pleasant time is promised all who may attend.

TO REDUCE COST OF COAL

Would Open Susquehanna River to Chesapeake Barge Carriers, Washington, Oct. 25.—Representative J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, president of the Atlantic Inland Waterways Association, has introduced in the house, two bills, which, if passed by Congress, will eventually pave the way for reducing the price of anthracite coal in Virginia by one dollar a ton.

One bill provides for opening the Susquehanna river to navigation by revoking the executive orders declaring it a non-navigable stream. The other provides for a survey of the same river for the purpose of building a chain of locks and dams so that it may be utilized by coal barges from the anthracite fields of Pennsylvania to Chesapeake Bay.

The Susquehanna is now closed by a $10,000,000 power dam at McCall's Ferry, Pa. Mr. Moore's bill would compel this power company to build a lock and canal around their dam.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of said City on Friday, September 26, 1913.

Present Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

CHAIN OF HOLD-UPS.

Kills One Man and Mortally Wounds Another.

Denver, Col., Oct. 25.—A bandit running amuck near the heart of the city early yesterday held up five pedestrians within a few blocks and shot and instantly killed T. J. Chase, of Palmer Lake, Col., and mortally wounded E. A. Clark, of this city.

The bandit fled before an automobile filled with police, who traced him from the scene of one hold-up to another only to arrive too late.

The shooting began when the bandit held up Antonio Fuguris, a street sweeper, sending a bullet through his hat.

A few minutes later E. A. Clark staggered into a drug store with a bullet through his right lung. Four blocks away Chase met his death without a word the bandit shot him through the heart. He held up and robbed two others without shooting them.

BRIDE CHARGED WITH THEFT

She Was Charged With Stealing $100.00 From Her Husband's Pocket.

New York, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Evelyn P. Rutherford, a bride of one month, was arrested yesterday on an indictment charging her with cashing 100 $20 coupons on Southern Pacific 4 per cent. bonds belonging to John D. Rockefeller. It is alleged that on the day she gave up her position to be married to James A. She is said to have confessed to having spent $400 of the proceeds on her trousseau and to have returned the balance to the Southern Pacific Company.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Min'l Unable to Work and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, Va. Va.—Mrs. Anne Eney, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16. Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold, which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect it, it will develop into a serious condition. In many cases Eckman's Alternative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. In estimating the value of Eckman's Alternative, I was troubled with cough and expectoration, also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1903, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. R. H. McCarty, he advised the use of Eckman's Alternative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight, I go out in all weather, and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alternative.

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALLY. (Abbreviated more on request.) Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stomach Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratories, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

DISCARDS HIS WIFE.

Having Wed a Divorced Woman, he

Marion, Ohio, Oct. 25.—Though legally married and loving each other, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Parker broke up their home when the husband, after being converted, became convinced their marriage was void in the eyes of God because Mrs. Parker had been divorced from her first husband. They placed on record a remarkable separation agreement, to which was appended the following:

"Owing to my wife being a divorced woman, we have found it, according to Matthew, 19, 9, Romans, 7, 2-4, and also 1 Corinthians, 7, 39, and kindred Scriptures, to be null and void in the sight of God. Signed, P. D. Parker."

The Parkers were married eight years ago and have an adopted child.

FRUSTRATE CLEVER HOBO.

Uniforms of White to Give Way to Penitentiary Stripes.

Many ingenious methods have been attempted for beating one's way on a train, but the one disclosed in the Fredericksburg police court a few days ago, is about as clever as has yet come to light.

E. L. Walker, colored dressed himself up as a waiter and boarded a dining car on No. 33, on southbound Seaboard Air Line train.

The Pullman car conductor discovered the impostor at Alexandria, and told Walker he would have to pay his fare; but as the colored man had no money, he was put off at Fredericksburg, and turned over to a policeman.

Justice Dannahl imposed a fine of $10 and cost, $2.50, but as the man was without financial resources, he will be a "waiter" upon the county rears for the ensuing 30 days.

TOO PRETTY TO BE PRISONER.

Young Woman, However, Charged With Larceny.

New York, Oct. 25.—A young woman, arrayed in a velvet suit of latest cut, and so pretty, small and dainty that every detective in police headquarters crowded forward in the hope that he might be able to do something for her, walked into the detective bureau yesterday. Behind her strode Detective Marron, but the idea never occurred to anyone that the girl could be under arrest until Marron led her to the desk.

She was Miss Alaine Mechis. Marron said she was under indictment for grand larceny. The girl is accused of stealing $1,900 worth of jewelry and $275 in cash from Miss May Woodall, of Norfolk, Va. Marron had been looking for the girl for several months, and learning last night that she was stopping at the Hotel Van Cortlandt, he waited until she came and arrested her.

She refused to answer any questions or to tell anything about herself. Her indictment, however, grew out of a visit paid by her in May to Norfolk, where Miss Woodall had advertised her millinery business for sale. Miss Mechis was accompanied by a man who represented himself to be a broker of this city, and both seemed so pleased with Miss Woodall's terms that all three came to this city to close the deal. The young women took a suite together, and in the morning the milliner awoke to find Miss Mechis gone and discovered that her jewelry and her money had disappeared.

SIX BURN TO DEATH.

Twenty Injured, Three Fatally, Leaping From Worthless Fire Escapes After Explosion.

New York, Oct. 25.—Six persons were burned to death and three others were fatally injured here yesterday in a fire which destroyed a six-story loft building in Canal street. Twenty persons were injured when they were forced to jump from fire escapes to avoid being burned to death. The fire resulted from the explosion of a gas oven on the third floor, occupied by the Royal Manufacturing Company.

Forty men and women narrowly escaped death when they were trapped on the roof. They found the fire escapes blocked with scores of others, who were unable to reach the sidewalk because the drop ladders at the lower ends of the escapes had rusted in their holders and could not be moved.

In St. Vincent's Hospital, five hours after the fire, a sixth victim, an eighteen-year-old youth, whose clothes had burned from his body as he fled down a fire escape, died of his injuries.

Suit for Divorce.

Glarence H. Ludwig has filed suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, for absolute divorce from Jennie Ludwig. They were married in Baltimore, July 9, 1902, and have three children. The husband charges misconduct and asks for the custody of the children. Mr. Ludwig is represented by Attorney Mark Bearman.

W. A. JONES IS WEAKER.

Mr. Jones will not undergo an operation which his physicians have advised until he is stronger. It was stated today the day for the operation had not been definitely decided upon.
